

Thomson Reuters Tax & Accounting Notice of Interruption of Service

Dear Valued Customer,

The enclosed past due notice contains invoice(s) that are at least 90 days past due. You are at risk of losing access to your products unless payment is received immediately.

Note: Such termination will not relieve the Subscriber of responsibility for the payment of all accrued charges.

Reinstatements occur automatically once the payment is received and processed.

If you have any questions concerning this notice please call our Collections Department. If you are calling within the U.S., contact us at 800-431-9025. If you are calling outside the U.S., contact us at 800-622-9266.

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

For print and electronic subscriptions, the term will be as stipulated in your initial agreement. At the conclusion of your initial term, your agreement will automatically renew thereafter for subsequent terms of one (1) year each unless and until either party gives the other party prior written notice of termination before the start of the renewal term. Once the renewal term has commenced, the term is non-cancelable.

You are entitled, at no additional charge, to have the Information Products and Tax Incentive Zone Lookup: Batch Processor kept current for the term of your agreement, in accordance with Thomson Reuters (Tax & Accounting) Inc.'s ("TRTA") update policies and procedures. During the term of your agreement, including renewals thereof, for all Information Products in print, CD-ROM and/or DVD form, you will receive the continuation of services and the automatic shipment of additional volumes, new developments, loose-leaf pages, supplements, volumes of a new series or edition, new disk versions or updates as published, and ancillary products. Your subscription renewals, revised editions and ancillary products will be based on the price in effect at the time of shipment, plus shipping and handling. The revised editions and ancillary products are sent on approval and thus may be returned or rejected to TRTA at no cost to you using the prepaid return shipping label, in accordance with TRTA's then-current returns policies.
